

Equality of Opportunity Monitoring

WV One is striving for equality of opportunity in employment. No employee or prospective employee will be treated less favourably on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, trade union activity, age or religious or political beliefs.

Recruitment and employment procedures and practices will be monitored to ensure that all individuals are treated on the basis of their relevant merits and abilities. If any employee or prospective employee feels that he or she has been treated in a way that contravenes this statement, a complaint should be addressed to the Operations Director. The information will be anonymously retained in line with the Data Protection Act 1998.

To help ensure that this statement is put into practice and for no other reason, please complete the brief questionnaire below and RETURN IT WITH YOUR APPLICATION FORM.
